Acting Chief, Eurasia Branch, OGI/GD

SUBJECT:

North Korean Nationals Working in the Soviet Union [REDACTED]

25X1

REFERENCE:

Our telephone conversation of 25 April 1983

1. Attached is the information you requested on the locations and activities of North Korean nationals working in the Soviet Union. [REDACTED]

2. Recently discovered in Khabarovskiy Kray, in the Soviet Far East, are two small logging and timber processing towns where North Koreans make up the majority of the labor force.

[REDACTED] Each town has at least two large signs with patriotic slogans which would only be appropriate for North Korean nationals. (See attachments) The towns are located on a railroad line (see map) that connects the Trans-Siberian Railroad to Urgal, a main junction on the Baikal-Amur Mainline.
